Symantec Endpoint Protection 16.0.3874.1100 Pre Cracked Serial Key! How to properly use the Caddy web server and nginx in docker? I have followed this docker doc to run my web server by using caddy as a reverse proxy to nginx. But when I try to access the server with it leads me to a 404 not found. My Dockerfile FROM nginx RUN rm -f /etc/nginx/sites-available/* EXPOSE 80 COPY /home/ubuntu/html /usr/share/nginx/html COPY /home/ubuntu/www /usr/share/nginx/html And the output of my docker compose api | 172.17.0.2 - - [21/Sep/2020:21:25:17 +0000] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 404 - - Why am I not getting the index.html? A: First off, it would have been better if you had shown us your compose file. You can either run both of them separately or make them run in parallel. Based on your usage, I assume that you want to run nginx first and then your caddy. So, if you are running nginx first and then caddy, your compose file should be like this. api | 172.17.0.2 - - [21/Sep/2020:22:13:57 +0000] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 404 - - api | 172.17.0.2 - - [21/Sep/2020:22:13:58 +0000] "GET /index.html HTTP/1.1" 404 - -

All you can hear is your heels clacking on the floor as you make your way down the hall. Still further down the hall there is the familiar sound of her voice warning of your impending arrival. "Miss Joanne! I've been expecting you. I hope you had a good trip?" But you've grown up the idea of good and bad these days and wonder if there's a web site that lists all of the forms of good and bad. "I sure did and I'm ready to discuss your future with you." You dig in for a verbal attack. "Your future? What is my future? Do you know?" She pauses and you wonder what is it she's thinking. "I know you would like to be a part of my team, but we can't have that. The law states I can't have you in that
